Virtual Christmas Parties

DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT!

Jess Pether

Communications Manager, UK Sport

“ Having organised my company's Christmas party for the last five years, I was worried that 2020 would be difficult to make special, but then I found Kate and her team at Secret Event Services! They organised a fantastic online murder mystery event for us (around 100 staff), which involved real actors, all hosted by a detective. The event was a huge hit with staff, who loved the interactive element and working in teams. It was also great to have pretty much all event organisation taken off my hands. We couldn't have asked for more at this very strange time. Thank you!”

Gav Winter

CEO, Rapid Spike

“ Kate and her team at The Secret Event Service made our online Christmas Party an evening to remember. A cocktail (and mocktail) master class, escape rooms and more were enjoyed by our team of 16. We absolutely loved every minute and it was great to receive our generous drinks packs through the post, it really helped get us all excited as we posted their arrival on slack. On the day the event was really well executed and such a great laugh we stayed on until the early hours partying! Thank you Kate and The Secret Event Service Team (you won't be a secret for long!!)

Anna Sutton

Co-Founder, The Data Shed

“ Kate and her gang pulled together the most amazing remote Christmas party for The Data Shed. We genuinely had so much fun, we barely noticed we were all in our respective homes. No request was too much trouble. If you need a helping hand pulling off a super-duper event - this crew is who you want in your corner. ☐☐☐

Megan Pocock

Business Analyst, Accelerant Holdings

“ What a fantastic event! We took part in the murder mystery for our virtual Christmas party and it was enjoyed by all circa 50 staff who attended from both the UK and across Europe. The service received in the run up and during the event was second to none. The actors were fabulous and very believable and the platform itself was a perfect fit for the event. Many staff commented on how it was even better than they had anticipated! Would highly recommend.

In Case of Emergency

IT'S ALWAYS GOOD TO HAVE A VIRTUAL BACKUP!

We'll work with your venue of choice to ensure your Face-to-Face Christmas party can be delivered virtually in case of emergency.

We want nothing more than you to be able to celebrate in style this year, so should there be any reason you cannot have a your party f2f, for example, your team need to isolate, or we go into a last-minute lockdown, we will work hard with our partners to deliver your event virtually!

As we all know, lockdown can happen with just three days' notice, so building your event with a virtual back-up option will allow us enough time to quickly turn a live event to online, saving you a lot of stress, potential wasted costs and creating a sensational virtual Christmas party for your team.

We've got your back. If your f2f has to be cancelled for any reason, we'll be there to ensure you can still celebrate in style.

*Please note, not all parties will be able to be delivered virtually.
